PETITION TO REVIVE ABANDONED APPLICATION
UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b)

Dear Sir:

Applicants' attorneys respectfully petition the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks to revive the above-identified application under the provisions of 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b) on the ground that as to Global 360, Inc., a party holding an interest in the above application, the abandonment of the above-identified application was completely unintentional. The undersigned hereby petitions for revival under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b).

All statements made herein of my own knowledge are true, and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true. These statements are made with knowledge that willful false statements, and the like so made, are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001, and such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application, any patents issued thereon, or any patent to which this verified statement is directed.

It is submitted, therefore, that on the basis described the abandonment should be held to be unintentional and the petition granted. The issue fee and drawings were timely transmitted to an old mailing address of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and said submission was returned. Accordingly, Global 360, Inc. requests revival so that the issue fee may be paid.

Enclosed herewith please find the following. The petition fee in the sum required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(m), a check for the issue fee, and a copy of the returned envelope.

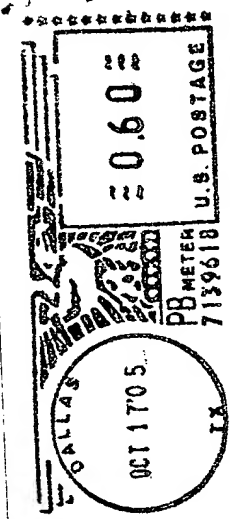

Dated this 28th day of November, 2005.

Respectfully submitted,

Karl L. Larson
